Confronting the Uncomfortable: A Series on Anti-Oppression and Anti-Racism

Join Leduc County Family and Community Support Services (FCSS) for this virtual series tackling the topics of anti-oppression and anti-racism. These sessions are a part of a series – you'll register for the whole series but feel free to attend one or both. These introductory sessions are open to adults and professionals.

Session one: Fundamentals In Anti-Oppression (Thursday, Sept. 7, 2023)

Join us for an important conversation about the history of oppression in Canada and how it is connected to biases, prejudices and discrimination. We will discuss how this history continues to affect us locally, and discuss where we can see biases, prejudice and discrimination impacting our community today.

Session two: Anti-Racism: Learning to Confront the Uncomfortable (Thursday, Sept. 21, 2023)

This session will help us better understand racism by examining its foundation and challenging common misunderstandings. It's a chance for us to reflect on what we know and what we think we know, using a critical social justice framework. Building an anti-racist society begins within ourselves and is an on-going journey of unlearning, bravery, and empathy. We hope participants will leave this session feeling more comfortable with the uncomfortable and have a clearer understanding of terms and ideas that are commonly used in conversations about race and racism.

This series is presented by Leduc County Family and Community Support Services (FCSS) in partnership with the John Humphrey Centre for Peace and Human Rights (JHC). JHC develops and delivers education and training to support communities, organizations, and individuals to embed human rights, build equity and address discrimination.

ORANGE SHIRT DAY

Saturday, September 30, 2017

A day to listen, learn, and celebrate Aboriginal culture

Why Orange Shirts?

Orange Shirt Day is a legacy of the St. Joseph Mission (SJM) residential school commemoration event held in Williams Lake, BC, Canada, in May 2013. It grew out of Phyllis' story of having her shiny new orange shirt taken away on her first day of school at the Mission, and it has become an opportunity to keep the discussion on all aspects of residential schools happening annually. Hear Phyllis' story here (3 minute video).

The date was chosen because it is the time of year in which children were taken from their homes to residential schools, and because it is an opportunity to set the stage for anti-racism and anti-bullying policies for the coming school year. It also gives teachers time to plan events that will include children, as we want to ensure that we are passing the story and learning on to the next generations.

Orange Shirt Day is also an opportunity for First Nations, local governments, schools and communities to come together in the spirit of reconciliation and hope for generations of children to come.

Aboriginal Peoples and Culture

The Canadian constitution recognizes three distinct groups of Aboriginal peoples, First Nation, Métis, and Inuit with unique histories, languages, cultural practices, and spiritual beliefs. More than 1.4 million people in Canada identify themselves as an Aboriginal person. Learn about the Aboriginal arts, history and heritage that are woven into the fabric of our country... more
