Get ready to file your income taxes

Tax season is almost here and now is the perfect time to start preparing! Getting ready early can help make sure you file your income tax and benefit return on time. It can also help you avoid delays or interruptions to any refund, benefit, or credit payments you're eligible for.

If you are eligible for any of the following tax credits or benefits, you must file your income taxes to continue receiving these payments:

- GST credit
- Canada Carbon Rebate
- Canada Child Benefit
- Canada Workers Benefit
- Guaranteed Income Supplement
- Alberta Seniors Benefit

How to get ready for tax season:

1. Register or update your information using CRA's My Account.
2. Start collecting your tax slips
3. Find any deductions, credits, and expenses you may be able to claim to help reduce the amount of tax you have to pay.

You can file your 2024 tax return starting on February 24, 2025. To avoid late filing penalties and interest, you'll need to file your return and pay any amount you owe by April 30, 2025.

Need help?

The Community Volunteer Income Tax Program (CVITP) can file income tax returns free of charge for people with low to modest income and a simple tax situation. This can include seniors, students, social assistance recipients and newcomers to Canada. Contact us for more information at 780-979-2385.
